

Mark's Current Bibliography on Race
February 5, 2020

"Divided by Faith: Evangelical Religion and the Problem of Race in America" – 2001 by Michael O. Emerson (Author), Christian Smith

Even though this was written in 2001 it is still one of the best analysis of how white Christians and black Christians look through different lenses in their understanding and experience of race.

"White Awake: An Honest Look at What it Means to Be White" – 2017 by Daniel Hill

"America's Original Sin" by Jim Wallis

One of our modern-day prophets on race and justice in America.

"The Color of Compromise: The Truth About The American Church's Complicity in Racism" - 2019 by Jemar Tisby

"Reconciliation Blues: A Black Evangelical's Inside View of White Christianity"
by Edward Gilbreath

Gives insight to the experience of African-Americans in the Evangelical world.

"Disunity in Christ" by Christena Cleveland

I have not read this yet but as a black woman, she is a much-needed voice in the discussion.

"The Next Evangelicalism" & "Prophetic Lament" by Soong-Chan Rah

A must read as we wrestle with what it means to be an "Evangelical Christian" College in today's world.

"Return to Justice: Six Movements That Reignited Our Contemporary Evangelical Conscience" by Soong-Chan Rah & Gary Vanderpol..

"Between The World and Me" by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Powerful reflection of growing up black in America by one of the premiere writers on race today. Check out his articles in the Atlantic.

"Tears We Cannot Stop: A Sermon to White America" – 2017 by Michael Eric Dyson

"Christian America and the Kingdom of God" – 2009 by Richard T. Hughes

"The End of White Christian America" – 2016 by Robert P. Jones

"The Cross and the Lynching Tree" – 2011 by James H. Cone

"Where Do We Go From Here" – 1968 Dr. Martin Luther King

King Jr., Martin Luther I Have A Dream: Writings and speeches that changes the world (Harper San Francisco, 1986, 1992) Dr. King's twenty most memorable writings and speeches, including the "I have A Dream" speech, and "Letter from a Birmingham jail" are presented in this concise and convenient editions